R.E. Turner

Owner

As Vice Chairman of Time Warner, Inc., a position he assumed on October 10, 1996, R.E. (Ted) Turner III oversees the Time Warner cable network divisions, which consist of the assets of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., including the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks and the Atlanta Thrashers.

Also falling under the TBS umbrella are the Cable News Network (CNN), Turner Network Television (TNT), TBS SuperStation, Headline News, CNN International, CNN/SI, Turner Classic Movies (TCM), Cartoon Network, Cartoon Network in Europe, Cartoon Network Latin America, CNN Airport Network, CNNfn, TNT Latin America, TNT in Europe and TNT, Cartoon Network in Asia Pacific and Turner's newest addition, Turner South. Turner South is a unique southern programming network that has begun to broadcast Braves, Hawks and Thrashers games.

Turner also oversees Home Box Office, Inc. (HBO), Cinemax, Warner Brothers International Networks, Castle Rock Entertainment, New Line Cinema and Time Warner's interest in Comedy Central and Court TV.

Turner became the owner of the Braves on January 14, 1976, when the National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Group, now Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Turner's ownership of the Braves, the Hawks and the Thrashers has helped bring stability to the Atlanta sports scene. He has turned over direct leadership of the Braves, Hawks and Thrashers to experts, including Stan Kasten, who serves as President of all three clubs, and Braves General Manager John Schuerholz.

Turner began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company (now TBS, Inc.) and, in 1963, became president and chief operating officer. Foreseeing the potential of satellite and cable technology almost a quarter of a century ago, Turner forged a new frontier in the television industry. He transformed a small UHF television station in Atlanta into the world's first "superstation" by beaming the station's signal via satellite to cable systems across the U.S., starting in December of 1976. Because of their national exposure on TBS, the Braves have fans in all 50 states.

Turner's enthusiasm for sports and improved international relations led him to create the Goodwill Games, an international, multi-sport event held in Moscow in 1986, Seattle in 1990, St. Petersburg, Russia in 1994 and New York City in 1998. The 2000 games were hosted by Lake Placid, New York and the 2001 games are scheduled to be held in Brisbane, Australia. The 1986 Moscow games represented the first time that U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics.

Turner revolutionized the television news industry in 1980, when he started CNN, the first 24-hour all news television network. In addition to providing in-depth live coverage and analysis of breaking events and comprehensive newscasts, CNN also offers a full range of programs covering the latest in business, weather, sports, entertainment, health and science news. HEADLINE NEWS was launched in 1982 to complement CNN's in-depth news coverage with concise, 30-minute newscasts updated 24 hours a day. Both CNN and Headline News received numerous accolades for their combined coverage of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Another of Turner's contributions to the cable industry was the launch of TNT in 1988. With a variety of high-quality, original programming, TNT is seen in more than 61 million homes. The service is home to many of Hollywood's greatest movies and high-profile sporting events, including the National Basketball Association and the 1992, 1994 and 1998 Winter Olympics. TNT also broadcast National Football League games through the 1997 season.

Turner's involvement in sports programming took another step forward with the launch of SportSouth in August of 1990. This southeastern regional network offers Atlanta Braves baseball and Atlanta Hawks basketball, college football, basketball and baseball, auto racing, volleyball, golf, tennis and other major sporting events. Now FOX Sports Net, the network is available in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina and Kentucky.

Turner was born in Cincinnati on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club. He is known as a superior yachtsman, having won national and world sailing titles, including a successful defense of the 1977 America's Cup, the 1979 Fastnet Trophy and four Yachtsman of the Year awards. He is a 1996 inductee of the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Turner is an active environmentalist and has received numerous civic and industry honors, including being named Time Magazine's 1991 Man of the Year and receiving the 1992 Governor's Award from the National Academy of Arts and Sciences. Turner is a board member of Time Warner, the National Cable Television Association, the Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Social Change, the Greater Yellowstone Coalition, the International Founders Council of the Smithsonian Museum of the American Indian and the Business Council for the United Nations. He is also president of the Turner Foundation, the Turner family's private grant-making organization, which focuses on population and the environment.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, has witnessed his team win 10 division championships, five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another N.L. West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team's fifth National League title came after last year's run.

Bartholomay, involved with the team as a director or owner for 38 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and moved the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is a member of MLB's Ownership and Restructuring committees and the Realignment Committee formed in January of 1997. He began his second active four-year term as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council in January of 1999, is a trustee of the MLB Players benefit plan, is a past chairman of the Commissioner Search Committee and a past member of the National League Executive Committee and the committee which recommended Bill White as N.L. president in the spring of 1989.

In January of 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is President of Near North National Group; Vice Chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and a Director of WMS Industries, Inc. He also serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners, Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and as a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

Stan Kasten, 48, has decades of top level sports administration experience. In his 14th season as President of the Atlanta Braves and TBS Vice President for Sports Teams, he has become one of the most highly-regarded executives in professional sports.

Under Kasten's leadership, the Braves have evolved into one of baseball's most successful franchises. In 1999, Atlanta extended its own record of consecutive division titles to eight. Since 1991, the Braves have won more games than any team in baseball, five N.L. pennants and one World Championship and have drawn more than 3,000,000 fans five times.

Both Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association have relied on Kasten's expertise in labor-management relations. As a member of MLB's owners negotiating committee, Kasten played a key role in formulating and articulating various management proposals and positions during baseball's last player-management negotiations.

On November 1, 1999, Kasten was named the President and Governor of the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. In addition to his responsibilities with the league's 28th franchise, Kasten serves as the Chairman of Philips Arena.

Kasten's association with Braves, Hawks and Thrashers owner Ted Turner goes back 24 years. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named Hawks President in April 1986 and Braves President in November of that same year. He relinquished his Hawks' GM duties in 1990, when the team brought in Pete Babcock.

As the Hawks' President, Kasten has established himself as one of the top team officials in the NBA. He is the only person to earn league Executive of the Year honors in consecutive seasons (1986 and 1987) in a vote by his peers.

In baseball, Kasten has served as chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee and is currently on the Expansion Committee. In basketball, he has served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee and currently is a member of the Hawks Board of Directors, the NBA Board of Governors and the NBA Labor Committee. He is a former trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame.

He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association.

Born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, NJ, Kasten attended Rutgers University before transferring to New York University (NYU), where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology, earned magna cum laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School in 1976, playing in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years. He still competes in an over-40 baseball league in Atlanta.

Stan and his wife, Helen, live in Sandy Springs with their four children, Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President & Assistant to the President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Aaron has given back to society for over 20 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of 9 and 12 realize their dreams as he realized his. The foundation gives grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5th, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series. This year's recipients were Sammy Sosa of the Cubs and Manny Ramirez of the Indians.

Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August of 1999 along with Warren Spahn, Eddie Matthews and Phil Niekro.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83. Among active players, Tom Glavine was signed while Aaron was in charge of baseball operations.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Tom Seaver, Nolan Ryan, George Brett and Ty Cobb have received a higher percentage of the votes cast. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of this year, Aaron was added to the Hall of Fame's Veterans Committee. He replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the 15-member committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing, the newest member of the Fox Sports Net crew, threw a fastball at 9:07 PM that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron struck for his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total of 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game in 1959 at San Francisco on June 21.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. He was born in Mobile, Alabama on February 5, 1934.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Since 1991, the Atlanta Braves have the best record in Major League baseball (860-532, .618) and have won an unprecedented eight straight divisional titles. In 1999, the Braves won 103 games, becoming only the fourth team in Major League history to win at least 100 games in three consecutive seasons. It was the first time a Major League team has accomplished this feat since the 1969-71 Baltimore Orioles and the first NL team since the 1942-44 St. Louis Cardinals. The other team to do it was the 1929-31 A's. Since 1991, the Braves have won five National League pennants, one World Series and several Organization of the Year awards and five times surpassed the three million mark in attendance, including a franchise-record 3,884,720 in 1993.

The team's successes are the result of an organizational commitment to excellence and a lot of hard work on the part of a lot of people. But, the Braves recognized the contributions of one individual and ensured that he would remain an integral part of their management team when, in March of 1998, they extended the contract of John Schuerholz, Executive Vice President and General Manager, through 2003. He is tied with Herk Robinson of the Royals for the longest current tenure (nine+ years) with the same organization among Major League general managers.

The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February of 2000.

Since his arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action. He obtained veteran left-handed pitcher Terry Mulholland and infielder Jose Hernandez from the Chicago Cubs at the trade deadline last year. This past off-season he acquired a leadoff hitter in Quilvio Veras, outfielder Reggie Sanders and veteran first baseman Wally Joyner in exchange for Ryan Klesko, Bret Boone, and Jason Shieff.

Heading into the 1999 season, Schuerholz signed free agent Brian Jordan and traded for Boone and Mike Remlinger. Jordan made his first All-Star appearance and set a career-high with 115 RBI and Remlinger earned 10 wins as a key member of the bullpen. In November of 1997 Schuerholz signed free agents Andres Galarraga and Walt Weiss to three-year contracts. Galarraga posted his third consecutive year with 40 or more home runs in 1998 and Weiss provided leadership out of the leadoff spot. Other players acquired before or during the 1998 season include Gerald Williams, Ozzie Guillen, Dennis Martinez and Greg Colbrunn. In March of 1997, Schuerholz acquired Kenny Lofton and Alan Embree from the Cleveland Indians and Michael Tucker and Keith Lockhart from the Kansas City Royals.

Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux were signed to new contracts in 1997 after John Smoltz had resigned in the off-season, keeping three pitchers who have won a total of seven Cy Young awards together at least through the year 2000. When injuries weakened the Braves' pitching staff during 1996, Denny Neagle was acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates for Jason Schmidt and minor leaguers Ron Wright and Corey Pointer. Terry Pendleton and Luis Polonia were added to the roster a second time and Andruw Jones earned his way from Class A ball to the Major Leagues in 1996. During the 1995 season, Mike Devereaux, Polonia and Alejandro Pena became Braves. Marquis Grissom joined Atlanta in April of that season. The Braves traded three minor leaguers to the San Diego Padres for Fred McGriff in July of 1993. Nine games out of first place prior to McGriff's first game on July 20, the Braves went 51-17 the rest of the season en route to a then franchise-best 104-58 record.

During the 1992-1993 off-season, Maddux, who had won the Cy Young award with the Cubs in 1992 and would win it again in 1993-95, signed with the Braves as a free agent and Smoltz and Glavine signed long-term contracts. Jeff Reardon came on board when the bullpen experienced health problems in late 1992. Pena joined the team for the first time in 1991. In the spring of that year, Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard and Nixon started wearing Braves uniforms. The man behind all these moves -- John Schuerholz.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 last-to-first performance, Schuerholz earned several awards. He was named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group. Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later and, as an Administrative Assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named Assistant Farm Director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President - Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, the Royals named him Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During Schuerholz's tenure with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship, two American League Pennants (1980 and 1985) and six divisional crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be General Manager of World Championship teams in both the National and American leagues. Since he was named General Manager of the Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (1,614) than those of any other active general manager in the major leagues. Furthermore, during Schuerholz's career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, he has been associated with three world champions (1966, 1985, 1995), eight pennant winners and 14 divisional crowns.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Hall of Fame in 1973 and is currently leading a fund raising effort for his alma mater to improve the baseball facility. He spearheaded the effort with an initial gift of $250,000.

Schuerholz is active in YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth, Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for terminally ill children, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

Winningest Team in Major League Baseball Since 1991

Since Schuerholz's arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other team in baseball.

2000 Braves Manager & Staff

Bobby Cox will manage in his fifth All-Star Game this year. The Braves' skipper led the National League to its last win in 1996.

Bobby Cox #6

Manager

HT: 6' 0" WT: 185
BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

With a season of injuries to key players, Bobby Cox demonstrated why he is one of baseball's best managers as he led Atlanta to its eighth consecutive division title and third consecutive season with at least 100 wins in 1999. Cox was named Sporting News Manager of the Year, his third as the Braves Manager (1991&1993). Under Cox, the Braves, who finished with a Major League best 103-59 record in 1999, have won more games (860) the past nine years than any team in the Major Leagues. The eight divisional titles have led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1999) and one World Championship (1995). Cox won his 1,500th game as a Major League manager when Atlanta beat St. Louis in 13 innings, 3-0, on August 28 last year in St. Louis.

In 1998, when the Braves won a franchise-record 106 games, Cox won his 1,000th game as a Braves manager on June 6 in Baltimore, became the franchise's winningest manager when he surpassed Frank Selee's mark of 1,004 with his 1,005th on June 16 at Turner Field against the Florida Marlins and won his 1,400th career game as a manager on August 26 at Houston. Cox is the 17th Major League manager in the modern era and 19th overall to win at least 1,000 games with one team.

His 1,521 regular season Major League wins, including 355 with Toronto and 1,166 with Atlanta, rank him second among active managers behind the St. Louis Cardinals' Tony LaRussa, who has won 1,639 games. Cox is 16th on the all-time list and with another solid season in 2000 could possibly surpass Ralph Houk, who is 12th with 1,619 career wins.

The 1997 season saw Cox lead the Braves to a Major League high 101 wins and a baseball-best sixth straight division title. The team participated in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, losing to the Marlins in six games. It marked the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

In 1996 the Braves defended their World Championship against the New York Yankees. Despite jumping out to a 2 games to none lead, the Braves dropped the next four. Cox had guided the Braves to a franchise mark of 56 home wins in the last season played at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4 games to 2, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise won a World Series in three different cities. The team won an NL best 25 games, including 18 after July 3, in its last at-bat.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Sporting News named Cox N.L. Manager of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst to first, captured the first of two consecutive National League pennants and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in that season, lifting an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Associated Press.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced many of the team's current standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

Pat Corrales #39

Dugout Coach

HT: 6' 1" WT: 220
BORN: 3/20/41 in Los Angeles, CA
RESIDES: Big Canoe, GA

In his 42nd season in professional baseball, Pat Corrales will work his second season as the Braves' dugout coach. Corrales worked the previous nine seasons as the Braves' first base coach, after joining the team as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989, and being named to Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reins.

In his nine years as a Major League manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came in 1978 with the Rangers, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Big Canoe. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

Bobby Dews #52

Bullpen Coach

HT: 6' 0" WT: 180
BORN: 3/23/39 in Clinton, IA
RESIDES: Albany, GA

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach December 9, 1996. This season Dews will spend his second year as the bullpen coach.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the Major League staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones and Javy Lopez are two of the current Braves who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguers.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. He had been a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. Bobby and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

Glenn Hubbard #16

First Base Coach

HT: 5' 7" WT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 in Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, GA

Glenn Hubbard returns for his second season as the club's first base coach. Prior to joining the major league staff, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 Major League seasons. In 1981 he set an Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the NL All-Star team. Hubbard lead all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his career playing with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves 20th round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second Major League game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first Major League home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a Major League record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

Two seasons ago with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's post-season All-Star team.

Glenn was born in Hahn AFB in Germany and graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. He was a four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball.

Leo Mazzone #54

Pitching Coach

HT: 5' 10" WT: 185
BORN: 10/16/48 in Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but nothing has given him more satisfaction than the past nine seasons.

The Braves' pitching staff has either led or been second in the Major Leagues in ERA each year starting in 1992. This past season was no exception, as the Braves' staff led the majors with a 3.63 ERA. Fourth starter Kevin Millwood made a strong run for NL Cy Young honors, finishing third. The 1998 Braves starting rotation of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, Denny Neagle and Millwood became only the third Major League staff with five 16-game winners, joining the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates and 1923 Yankees, with Glavine claiming his second Cy Young award. Rookie Kerry Ligtenberg took over in the bullpen to lead the team with 30 saves and 75 appearances. In 1997, Neagle went 20-5 and placed third in the NL Cy Young voting. Smoltz won the 1996 National League Cy Young award. In 1995, Maddux won an unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young award. Each of the four starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings in 1993. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts and Glavine won the National League Cy Young in 1991.

Mazzone was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the Major League level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21, 1984, before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Mazzone co-authored a book with writer Jim Rosenthal entitled Pitch Like A Pro. Leo lives in Atlanta and has three sons: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas.

Merv Rettenmund #28

Hitting Coach

HT: 5' 11" WT: 200
BORN: 6/6/43 in Flint, MI
RESIDES: San Diego, CA

Merv Rettenmund was named as the Braves' hitting coach this past November after serving in the same capacity for the San Diego Padres for the previous nine years. 2000 will mark Rettenmund's 35th season in professional baseball. Under his tutelage, the Padres set club records in several offensive categories, including 489 extra-base hits and 292 doubles in 1998 and 795 runs, 761 RBI and 2,282 total bases in 1997. The Padres' 1997 team average of .271 ranked 3rd, behind the Rettenmund-coached 1994 (.275) and 1995 (.272) teams. San Diego Manager Bruce Bochy named Rettenmund to his coaching staff for the 1999 All Star game in Boston. In his nine seasons in San Diego, Rettenmund coached a pair of N.L. batting champions—Tony Gwynn (.372 in 1997, .353 in 1996, .368 in 1995 and .394 in '94) and Gary Sheffield (.330 in '92). Prior to joining the Padres, Rettenmund was the hitting coach for the Oakland Athletics after spending three seasons as the A's roving hitting instructor. Before his stint with Oakland, he was the hitting coach for three seasons with the Texas Rangers after three years as a coach in the California Angels chain (bullpen coach in 1980, hitting coach in 1981, and minor league hitting instructor in 1982).

Rettenmund spent parts of 13 seasons as a player in the major leagues with the Orioles, Reds, Padres and Angels from 1968-80. In 1970, he hit 18 homers and led the World Series champion Orioles with a .322 batting average. Rettenmund followed that season up with a .318 mark (good for 3rd in the A.L.), 11 home runs and 75 RBI in 1971. He played in four League Championship Series and two World Series with Baltimore before moving to the Cincinnati Reds and helping them to the World Series championship in 1975. Following his stint with the Reds, Rettenmund played for two years with the Padres and still holds the club record for most pinch hits in a season with 21 in 1977. Rettenmund finished his career with three years in Anaheim, helping the Angels to the A.L. West title in 1979.

Mervin and wife Susan have two daughters, Cyndi (6/5/65) and Christy (4/25/70). He graduated from Ball State University in Muncie, IN with a B.S. in Education. Merv was all-conference in both football and baseball and was drafted by the NFL's Dallas Cowboys before signing with the Baltimore Orioles.

Ned Yost #5

Third Base Coach

HT: 6' 1" WT: 185
BORN: 8/19/55 in Eureka, CA
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Ned Yost moved out of the bullpen last year to take over the coaching duties at third base. At 44, Yost is the second youngest coach on the staff (Hubbard). Yost had served as the Braves' bullpen coach since joining the Major League staff in 1991. He had spent the previous three seasons managing Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with several of the Braves' heralded prospects, including Ryan Klesko.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the minor league draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980 and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. He saw his final Major League action when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jenny and Andrew.

Manager: Randy Ingle returns for his second season as the skipper of Richmond after leading the Braves to a 64-78 mark in 1999. Ingle, who has twice been named as the organization's Manager of the Year (1996 & '97), will be in his ninth season as a manager in the Braves' minor league system. Last year he made the move up to Richmond after leading the Greenville Braves to a 67-72 record in 1998, which included a 37-32 second-place finish in the second half. In 1997 Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. In 1996 he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half. Ingle's previous managerial stints also include stops at Macon (1993) and Pulaski (1990-1992). Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Bill Fischer will make the 2000 season his 53rd season overall in professional baseball and his ninth within the Atlanta Braves organization. "Fish," as friends and colleagues know him, has been involved in professional baseball as a player, scout, roving instructor, or pitching coach every year since 1948. Born October 11, 1930 in Wausau, Wisconsin, William Charles Fischer, was signed by the Chicago White Sox in 1948 as a right-handed pitcher out of Marathon High School in Marathon, Wisconsin. His pitching career, which lasted 20 years, included nine seasons in the Major Leagues. At the conclusion of his playing career, Bill joined the expansion Kansas City Royals as an area scout, covering the states of Florida, Georgia and Alabama from 1969-74. He was the minor league pitching instructor from 1975-78. He joined the Cincinnati Reds where he worked with John McNamara as his pitching coach from 1979-82 and continued his duties with Russ Nixon in 1983. After his stint in Cincinnati, he returned to the Kansas City Royals in 1984, serving once again as their minor league pitching instructor. Bill rejoined John McNamara as his pitching coach in 1985 with the Boston Red Sox, a position he held through the 1991 season. Following the 1989 season, Bill spent several weeks as a special pitching instructor with the Orix Braves (now Orix Blue Wave) of the Japanese Pacific League. Bill joined the Atlanta Braves organization in November of 1991 as its roving pitching instructor, a position he held for the 1992 and 1993 seasons. In 1994 he was named to his current position, pitching coach of the Richmond Braves. A side of Bill Fischer not known to many is his generous giving of his time and efforts to the community. Following the 1988 season, Fischer was selected by the BoSox Club as the Red Sox Man of the Year for his cooperation in community endeavors and contributions to the success of the team. He is the only non-player to win the award. In 1976 he received the Ewing M. Kauffman Award for his outstanding contribution to the Kansas City Royals organization. Bill has also been very active in coordinating baseball clinics for youth. Bill, 69, and his wife, Valeria, reside in Council Bluffs, Iowa. The couple has two children, Michael and Melissa.

Coach: Mel Roberts returns for his second season with the Richmond Braves coaching staff after spending the previous three years with the Greenville Braves of the Southern League. Prior to joining the Atlanta Braves organization, Roberts served as first base coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-1995. He managed the Spartanburg Phillies from 1988 to 1991 where he won the South Atlantic League Championship in 1988 and was also named as an All-Star manager. Roberts began his coaching career in 1969 with the Phillies organization as a player-coach with Raleigh-Durham. He later worked as a roving outfield instructor (1984, 1986) prior to managing at Bend (OR) in 1987. Roberts, a former outfielder, played nine years of professional baseball from 1961-1970, signing first with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1961. He was out of professional baseball in 1965, playing semi-pro ball for Jenkintown. He signed with the Phillies organization in September of 1965 and played through 1970.

After graduating from Abington High School in Abington, PA., Roberts, 57, attended Temple University and Spartanburg Tech. His commitment to the youth of Spartanburg, resulted in the establishment of the Mel Roberts Scholarship Fund. Spartanburg Mayor James Talley proclaimed July 26, 1993 Mel Roberts Day in the community. Mel and his wife, Lucille, reside in Spartanburg, South Carolina. They have two sons, Jimmy and Juan, and two daughters, Jacqueline and Linda.

Manager: Paul Runge's affiliation with the Atlanta Braves dates back to 1979 when Atlanta selected him in the 9th round of the draft as a shortstop out of Jacksonville University. This will be his second year as manager of the Greenville Braves after leading the Southern League squad to a 58-80 record a season ago. Runge spent the 1998 season as manager of the Danville 97's, the Atlanta Braves Class A Carolina League affiliate. The 97's, a one-year wonder, moved to their new location in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina after a 58-82 mark under Runge. In 1997 Runge managed the Durham Bulls to a 63-76 record, their final season of affiliation with the Atlanta Braves organization. In previous stops within the Braves farm system, Runge managed at Macon (1996), Eugene (1995), Danville (1994), and Idaho Falls (1993). Runge began his coaching career in 1992 as a coach for Idaho Falls. In addition, Runge also has managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-1995). As a player, Runge played for the Atlanta Braves from 1981-1988 before ending his playing career in the San Diego Padres (1989) and Toronto Blue Jays (1990) organizations. Paul, his wife, Rae, and one child and live in Cleviston, FL.

Pitching Coach: Mike Alvarez returns for his third season as the Greenville Braves pitching coach. Alvarez is credited with continuing the development of young Braves pitchers, Bruce Chen, Odalis Perez and Micah Bowie. Alvarez spent thirteen years as a pitching coach with the Kansas City Royals organization, including the last five years as the pitching coach of the Pacific Coast League's AAA Omaha Royals. Alvarez's ties to the Southern League began when he served as pitching coach for the Memphis Chicks from 1991-1992. Prior to that stint, Alvarez served as pitching coach for the Baseball City Royals (1988-1990), Appleton Foxes (1987), and Ft. Myers Royals (1985-1986). A former right-handed pitcher, Alvarez played for both the Baltimore Orioles (1980-1981) and Kansas City Royals (1981-1984). After graduating from Hialeah High School, he attended Louisiana State University. Mike, 41, and his wife, Thelma, reside in Miami with their son Kyle.

Coach: Bobby Moore begins his fourth season of professional coaching and his second with the Greenville Braves staff. In 1998, he worked under Paul Runge with the Danville 97's. In 1997, his inaugural season of professional coaching, Moore served as a coach with the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League. Moore played with the Braves organization from 1992 to 1996, when in 1996 a fractured hip cut short his last season in Richmond. A 16th round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987, Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University before beginning his first season of professional baseball at Eugene. In 1987, his rookie season, Moore was named to the Northwest League All-Star team after batting .374 and stealing 23 bases in 57 games. In 1989 he led the Florida State League with 85 runs scored. The following year he was named to the Southern League All-Star team after producing a .303 BA and swiping 27 bases in 112 games. During the 1991 season, Moore received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at bats. In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He spent the 1992 season at Richmond. After a one-year stint playing for Laredo of the Mexican League, he rejoined the Royals organization in 1994 before being signed as a free agent by the Richmond Braves in June of that year. Moore finished the conclusion of the 1994 season in a flurry, hitting .366 in 60 games along with 10 steals. During his 10-year professional baseball career, from 1987 to 1996, Moore compiled a .279 average and had 175 stolen bases. Bobby and his wife, Jane, reside in his hometown of Cincinnati, Ohio with their son, Robert.

Manager: Brian Snitker returns for his second season in Myrtle Beach after managing the Pelicans to the co-championship of the Carolina League last year. Snitker was named the organization's Manager of the Year for the second consecutive season, after Myrtle Beach went 79-60 with a second half, first-place finish in the Southern Division. In 1998, as manager of the Macon Braves, Snitker led an inexperienced club to a second half South Atlantic League title with a 39-32 record. In 1997 Brian Snitker led the Macon Braves to an 80-60 season which included winning both first and second half division titles. For his efforts, Snitker was named Manager of the Year in the South Atlantic League. In 1996 Snitker led the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League to a second place finish with a 37-29 record. His previous managerial stops also include Macon (1992), Durham (1983, 1984, and 1987), Sumter (1986), and Anderson (1982). Snitker also served as bullpen coach on the Atlanta Braves Major League coaching staff during the 1985 season and from 1988-1990. Signed by the Braves as a free agent in 1977, Snitker was a catcher for four years in the team's minor league system. His best season was 1979, when he hit .255 with eight HR and 30 RBI in 75 games at Savannah. He is credited with hitting one of the longest homers ever seen at Orlando's Tinker Field, belting a ball over 500 feet on May 6, 1979. Snitker, a 1973 graduate of Macon (IL) High School, attended the University of New Orleans. Brian and his wife, Veronica, reside in Lilburn, Georgia with their two children, Erin and Troy.

Pitching Coach: Bruce Dal Canton returns for his second season as pitching coach with Myrtle Beach. His Pelicans' pitching staff led the Carolina League with a team ERA of 3.50. Prior to joining Myrtle Beach in 1999, DalCanton worked with the Danville 97's in the same capacity. Dal Canton served as pitching coach with the Greenville Braves from 1994-1997, which included a Southern League Championship in 1997. Dal Canton, 56, was pitching coach for the Richmond Braves from 1991 to 1993 after serving the major league staff as its pitching coach from 1987 to 1990. Dal Canton has been a fixture in the organization since 1982 when he joined the Atlanta Braves as a roving minor league pitching instructor. He was pitching coach at Savannah in 1983, Greenville in 1984, and Richmond in 1985 and 1986. Over an 11-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 log as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through 1976. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in April of 1977, and after his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season. Dal Canton attended California University of Pennsylvania and the University of West Virginia, earning a B.S. degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, PA.

Coach: Sixto Lezcano begins his first season in the Braves' organization after seven years as a member of the Kansas City Royals coaching staff. Lezcano has served as the Royals' Minor League Outfield Instructor for the last three seasons. Prior to being an instructor, Lezcano was a coach at the Class A Wilmington Blue Rocks from 1994 through 1996. In 1993, Lezcano was a coach at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate. The former Major League outfielder played in 1,291 games covering 12 seasons. Lezcano hit .271 with 148 home runs and 591 RBI. He began his career in Milwaukee in 1974 and played with the Brewers for seven years before being traded to St. Louis in 1981. Lezcano played for San Diego in 1982-83, Philadelphia in 1983-84 and Pittsburgh in 1985. He was a member of Philadelphia's World Championship team in 1983. Lezcano also played in Japan and in the Senior League. Sixto, 46 years old, resides in Orlando FL with his wife, Mariangelly, sons Michael, Steve, and Sergio and daughter, Zurielle.

1999 Season in Review

35-34 1st Half	79-60
2nd Southern Division / 2.5 GB	44-26 2nd Half
	1st Southern Division / 1.0 GA

Myrtle Beach, in its first season as a Braves' affiliate, finished co-champions of the Carolina League with Wilmington. The Pelicans won the Southern Division's second half and made it to the finals against the Blue Rocks. The final game of the best-of-five series was cancelled due to Hurricane Floyd.

The Pelicans were led offensively by the Southern League's Most Valuable Player, Marcus Giles. It was the second straight season Giles picked up player of the year honors (South Atlantic-1998). The second baseman led the league in average (.326), hits (162), doubles (40), was second in slugging percentage (.513) and extra base hits (60). Giles also cut his errors from 25 to eight this year.

Jason Ross had a nice campaign with a league-leading 13 triples and a team-high 31 stolen bases. Mike Hessman provided the power with 23 home runs, which tied him for third in the league. Ryan Lehr added a .255 average to 14 homers and 68 RBI.

Derriek Lewis, who was named the team's Most Valuable Pitcher, led the starting staff with an 8-4 record and a 2.40 ERA that ranked second in the league. Scott Sobkowiak was third with a 2.84 ERA. Jason Shiell added a 3.77 ERA, which ranked him tied for eighth. Luis Rivera fought injuries during the season, but dominated the playoffs with three hits and 23 strikeouts in 12.0 scoreless innings.

Manager: Former Braves second baseman Jeff Treadway, who played on both the 1991 and 1992 Atlanta Braves National League Champion teams, returns for his second season as manager of the organization's affiliate in Macon. Treadway led the M-Braves to a 74-64 record and a first-round appearance in the South Atlantic League playoffs. No stranger to the South Atlantic League, in 1998 Treadway served as hitting coach for the Augusta Greenjackets, Pittsburgh's affiliate that defeated the Macon Braves two-games-to-zero in the SAL playoffs. Treadway, a veteran of nine major league seasons, played in Atlanta from 1989 to 1992, followed by stops with Cleveland (1993), Los Angeles (1994-1995) and Montreal (1995). The Cincinnati Reds originally signed Treadway, a native of Columbus, GA, as a free agent in 1984, following his playing career at both Middle Georgia College and the University of Georgia. He reached the majors with Cincinnati in 1987 and 1988 before being acquired by Atlanta on March 25, 1989. While attending the University of Georgia, Jeff received his undergraduate degree in Business Education. Jeff, 39, and his wife Lori, reside in Griffin, GA with their two children, Benjamin and Alden.

Pitching Coach: Kent Willis begins his fifth season as a coach in the Atlanta Braves farm system, as he teams up with former Braves Jeff Treadway and Tommy Gregg for the second straight season on Macon's staff. His Macon staff finished fourth in the 14-team league with a 3.59 team ERA. Willis spent the 1998 season with the Gulf Coast Braves, sharing coaching duties with veteran pitching coach Eddie Watt. The duo also shared duties in 1996 during Willis' first season of professional coaching. Willis spent the 1997 season as pitching coach for the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League. During the winter of 1997, Willis served as a pitching coach for Escogido of the Dominican Summer League. The previous winter he was a pitching coach with Lagaira of the Venezuelan Winter League. Willis, 34, pitched four years in the minor leagues within the Cincinnati Reds, Kansas City

Royals, and Montreal Expos organizations from 1986-1989. A native of Columbus, Mississippi, Willis received his degree in Athletic Administration and Sociology from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1987. Kent and his wife, Sheila, reside in Jackson, MS with their two children, Carlo and Kenyatta.

Coach: Former Braves outfielder Tommy Gregg returns for his second season as a coach in Macon. Under his direction last year, Macon finished fourth in the 14-team South Atlantic League with a team batting average of .261. During Gregg's first season, Macon produced five position players on the SAL All-Star team. Gregg was a teammate of manager Jeff Treadway on both the 1991 and 1992 National League Champion teams. The former utility man played nine Major League seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1987-1988), Atlanta Braves (1988-1992, 1997), Cincinnati Reds (1993), and Florida Marlins (1995) organizations. Originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 7th round of the June 1985 draft out of Wake Forest University, Gregg made his professional debut at Macon, which was then a Pirates affiliate. Besides being an All-ACC performer in baseball at Wake Forest, he was also a wide receiver and kick returner on the football team. Tommy, 37, and his wife, Tonya, reside in Suwanee, GA.

Mathews is the only Brave in franchise history to play for the team on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in '53 with 47 and '59 with 46. He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more, 10 times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBIs in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. The Braves' traded Mathews to Houston in 1967 where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. He managed into the 1974 season accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, Murphy was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 & 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games, leading all players in votes in 1985, won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBIs (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926).

Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn won 20 or more games 13 times, a National League record, eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-1961) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-1963) leading in complete games are both Major League records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39 against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20 win seasons, and shutouts (63). Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August of 1999.

The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic of the first order. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice more in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first player in N.L. Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 -- Toronto 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (last three setbacks to Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's 6th-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a come-from-behind 5-4 win, sparked by a 9th-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3&4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the 9th on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8x15) with five stolen bases.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cleveland 2

The Braves affirmed their standing as baseball's team of the 1990's by capturing Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 post-season hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a post-season. Grissom hit safely in all 14 post-season contests, the longest batting streak ever in one post-season. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the post-season 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for post-season hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the 1995 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston in 1914 and Milwaukee in 1957.

1996 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two AB in game one (3 x 4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only 6 hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, 2 were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had 3 RBI in game 2, after getting 2 in game one, to give him 15 RBI for the post-season, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the post-season. Including the final three victories over the Cards in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a 2-run homer in the 8th inning of game three, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three Yankee runs in the frame cut Atlanta's lead in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the 8th, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a 3-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz in game five, 1-0, the only score coming on a 4th-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for 3 runs in the 3rd in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to 9 runs in a 4-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the 8th inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the 4th, but the Yankees parlayed 3 hits, 3 walks and 2 errors into 4 runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's 9th-inning single. After the offense's 2-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the 9th inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for 5 runs (4 ER) on 8 hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked 3 doubles in the first 4 innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the 5th and Tino Martinez in the 7th to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the 8th on a 2-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless 9th sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final 6 innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shut out Atlanta over the first 7 innings of Game 4, and the Yankees' 3-run 3rd proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 ER, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' 8th straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the 9th scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win over Pittsburgh in Game 7. NLCS MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Bucs in Game 2. The Pirates captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Lincecum's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for the Game 7 drama. With their improbable 9th-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive post-season game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 -- Philadelphia 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueling John Smoltz in Game 4, to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer, that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves in defeat with a .435 batting average.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned as the National League representative in the World Series for the third time in the last four fall classics by sweeping the Reds, the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game, 1-1, in the top of the ninth. Eventual MVP winner Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10 innings at Riverfront, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a 3-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta in Game 3, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4, with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a 3-run home run to lead the Braves. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout, avenging a sub-par regular season for him. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right-fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 -- Atlanta 4 games, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their post-season saga of the '90s by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS by crushing the Cardinals, 32-1, over the final three games. Game one saw Javy Lopez break a 2-2 tie in the 8th with a bases-loaded, 2-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 victory behind John Smoltz (8.0 IP, 5 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 6 K). Chipper Jones led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his 4th save in 4 appearances in the '96 post-season. The momentum in the series shifted in game two when Gary Gaetti's 7th-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into a comfortable 8-3 victory. In Game 3 Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with 2 outs and no one on in the St. Louis 7th, but before the 3rd out the Redbirds fought back to tie the score and claim the lead for good in the 8th on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five 1st-inning runs en route to a 14-0 rout, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 5 with 2 doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added 4 hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. Game 6 was vintage Maddux as the four-time Cy Young winner blanked the Cardinals through 7.0 innings en route to a 3-1 win. Maddux (7.2 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 7 K) teamed with Wohlers (2nd save of LCS) to hold the Cards in check; Wohlers' 8th-inning wild pitch accounted for the only run allowed by the Braves over the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored 6 in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's 3-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 finale broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent the Braves to their fourth World Series out of the last five played. The Braves became the first NL club to win 4 pennants in 5 completed seasons since the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1952-53-55-56. Lopez was named series MVP after batting .542 (13 x 24) with 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI.

1997 -- Florida 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record 6th straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outpitching Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only 1 unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for 5 runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cuthbert and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to 3 hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a 3-run double off John Smoltz in the 6th inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on 4 hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series at 2 games apiece. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only 5 hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only 3 hits and notching a NLCS record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a 4-run 1st inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves in defeat by hitting .500 (8 x 16) in 5 games.

1998 -- San Diego 4 games, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a 3 games to none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in 6 games. Braves entered bottom of 9th of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first 2 games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding three games to none lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 entering the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a 3-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a 3-run lead into bottom of the ninth, but a 2-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0, with all runs crossing the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field, with Padres hurlers holding the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames.

1999 -- Atlanta 4 games, New York 2

The Braves clinched their 5th NL pennant of the 1990's with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta, concluding a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within 4 outs of a 4-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within 3 outs of forcing a 7th game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted 2-run homers in the bottom of the 6th to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an 8th-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the 9th to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first Major League relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the 1st inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding 3-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the 8th, but Olerud's 2-out, 2-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in Major League post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a 2-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a 2-run homer by Olerud in the 1st — rally for 2 runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a 5-run 1st inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a 2-run Piazza blast in the 7th off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the 8th on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within 3 outs of a 7th game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its 5th World Series of the 1990's. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10 x 20) with 2 homers and 5 RBI.

The Braves in the Division Series

1995 -- Atlanta 3 games, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Colorado's Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won, 5-4. Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing, 4-3, entering the ninth inning. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two home runs and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Staff ace Greg Maddux, Grissom, and Fred McGriff teamed to lead the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for post-season hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 -- Atlanta 3 games, Los Angeles 0

Although the Braves hit only .180 and were held to 10 runs, Atlanta nonetheless swept the Dodgers in 3 games, as the staff allowed only 3 ER in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in LA saw the Braves continue their '90s tradition of one-run games in the post-season as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) received the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2 the Braves trailed 2-1 before Fred McGriff's HR leading off the seventh inning tied the game and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only 2 unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his 2nd save in 2 games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. The Braves completed a three-game sweep as Tom Glavine (6.2 IP, 1 ER) and Chipper Jones (2-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a 2-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a 4-run 4th inning to give the Braves a 5-0 lead, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo. The victory sent the Braves to their fifth straight NLCS.

1997 -- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, this time taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, while outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux (9.0 IP, 7 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 6 K) in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the 2nd inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with 3 runs in the 5th and 5 more in the 6th. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks from Astros pitching, including 8 issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in game 3 at Houston as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating effort (9.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 11 K), taking a 4-1 decision. For the series, Braves starters Maddux-Glavine-Smolts combined for a 1.87 ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP). The Braves' offense, despite being held to a .217 BA, posted 19 runs with their 20 hits.

1998 -- Atlanta 3 games, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves have posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz (7.2 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 6 K) in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 8 K) and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth (7.0 IP, 7 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 4 K), but Kerry Ligtenberg came on to pitch two scoreless innings and send the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 -- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros to advance to their record 8th straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only 1 run on 7 hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 2 ER) absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the 5th 1-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood (9.0 IP, 1 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 8 K) allowed only a 2nd-inning homer to Ken Caminiti in his first post-season outing. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a 6th-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning post-season classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all 5 runs, courtesy of a 3-run, 6th inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a 2-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rucker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rucker strikeout of Ricky Gutierrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have series sewed up thanks to a 5-run 6th in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the 8th, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a 3-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the 9th again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rucker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

Braves History

1901 - In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.

1902-Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.

1912-The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.

1914-The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.

1928-Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.

1935-Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.

1936-The Braves' name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.

1938-Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.

1947-Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.

1948-This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1950-Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie- of -the-Year award.

1952-Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.

1953-The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47, and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.

1954-Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.

1956-Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.

1957-The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers, and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.

1958-In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

1959-It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.

1960-Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21, but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.

1961-Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.

1963-Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.

1964-The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).

1965-The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.

1966-The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League Baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.

1967-Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to 7th in the league standings.

1968-In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.

1969-The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.

1970-Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.

1971-Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

1972-Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by future Hall of Fame third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.

1973-The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson hit 42 of his as a second baseman, tying Rogers Hornsby for the Major League record for most homers in a season by a second baseman. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.

1974-Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.

1975-The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.

1976-The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.

1977-Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

1978-Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1979-Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games. Tragically, Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at age 43 on May 5th.

1980-Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and he responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.

1981-A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games.

1982-Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.

1983-Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.

1984-Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.

1985-Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.

1986-Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.

1987-Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.

1988-Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.

1989-The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Lonnie Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.

1990-The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.

1991-The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the N.L.'s first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance.

Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings.

Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and BASEBALL AMERICA honored Atlanta by naming it the Organization-of-the-Year.

1992-Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2.

The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop.

Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993-After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals.

McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carty. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948 and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. The team drew a franchise-record 3,884,720.

1994-The Braves opened the campaign in the newly aligned National League attempting to capture their fourth straight division crown in their new home, the N.L. East. The Braves began the season in record fashion, winning their first seven games, all on the road. It was the second best start in Atlanta history and a modern N.L. record for consecutive wins on a season-opening road trip. Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, 6-0, April 8 in Los Angeles. The Braves equaled their Atlanta-best 13-1 start, which included tying a team record 10 straight road wins. The Braves set an Atlanta record for runs scored in their 19-5 victory at Chicago April 15. In that game Atlanta hit back-to-back-to-back homers and duplicated the accomplishment three days later to become the first team in major league history to achieve the feat twice within that short a time frame. Bobby Cox became the 41st manager in major league history to win at least 1,000 games with a 6-5 victory June 17 vs. Cincinnati. Fred McGriff, David Justice and Greg Maddux represented Atlanta in the All-Star game in Pittsburgh. Maddux started for the National League, and McGriff captured the MVP award after he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at 7-7. (The NL won in 10 innings, 8-7.) McGriff hit his 30th homer August 5 at Cincinnati to become the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 home runs in seven or more straight seasons. He led the team in homers (34), batting average (.318), RBI (94), runs scored (81) and 2B (25).

Maddux also reached the record books by becoming the first player in major league history to win three straight Cy Young Awards. Maddux finished 16-6, tied for the lead league in wins, and led the league in ERA (1.56), complete games (10), innings pitched (202.0) and opponents batting average against (.207). For the third consecutive season, the Braves led the N.L. in homers with 137. They also finished second in the league with a 3.57 ERA.

The Braves were second in the N.L. East, 6.0 games behind Montreal, when the players went on strike after the games of August 11, cancelling the playoffs and World Series for the first time since 1904.

1995-The Braves validated their label as the "Team of the '90s" by winning their first World Series in 38 years. The world championship was the first for the city of Atlanta in a major professional sport, while the Braves also entered the record books as the first franchise to win the World Series in three different cities. Atlanta overcame a 23-20 start (3rd place, 5.0 GB) to post a 67-34 (.663) mark from June 14 through the remainder of the regular season, running away with the N.L. East title by 21.0 games. By winning the division, the Braves became the first N.L. team to finish first in four consecutive completed seasons since the 1921-24 New York Giants.

Atlanta's pitching lived up to expectations, leading the majors with a 3.44 ERA; the Braves' staff became the first to lead the majors in ERA for three straight completed seasons since the Baltimore Orioles topped the majors from 1969 through 1972. Greg Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA, becoming the first starting pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1918-19 to record an ERA of less than 1.70 in two consecutive seasons. He ended the season with a major league record 18-game winning streak on the road (including an .099 ERA) dating back to July, '94. Mark Wohlers emerged as the dominant closer the Braves had sought throughout the '90s, saving 25 games, including 21 straight chances between May 15 and September 3. Fred McGriff (27), David Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Rookie of the Year runnerup Chipper Jones (23) became the first Braves foursome to hit over 20 homers in a season since 1973, and Javy Lopez matched Joe Torre's 1966 record for the best average by an Atlanta catcher with a .315 mark.

Last at-bat wins were the trademark of the '95 Braves, with Atlanta winning an N.L.-best 25 games in this fashion, including 18 after July 3. The Braves led the majors with 31 one-run victories, and went on to notch another seven victories in the post-season by one run and/or in their last at-bat.

Atlanta beat the Rockies three games to one in the Division Series, and routed the Reds in the first-ever four-game sweep of an NLCS, before winning the world title with a six-game triumph over the Indians, climaxed by Series MVP Tom Glavine's one-hitter over eight innings and David Justice's decisive sixth-inning homer in the 1-0 finale.

1996-The Braves made their fourth trip to the World Series out of the last five played, but were unable to defend their world title as the Yankees took the championship in six games. In their final season at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, the Braves took over first place for good on May 19, en route to winning the NL East by 8.0 games. The division crown was Atlanta's fifth straight, marking the first time a National League team has registered five straight first-place finishes. Braves bowed out of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium by setting a franchise mark with 56 home wins, topping the old record of 51, set three times previously. Atlanta's .270 team BA was its best since hitting .272 in 1983, while the club's 197 homers were third-most in Atlanta history, trailing only the teams of 1966 (207) and 1973 (206). The pitching staff set a major league record by fanning 1,245 batters, breaking the Astros' major league mark of 1,221 set in 1969; the staff also allowed the fewest walks in the majors, issuing only 451 free passes. By going 12-15 in September, team ended a stretch of playing .500+ ball for 21 straight months since April, 1993.

John Smoltz continued the Braves' Cy Young reign, as the righthander fashioned a breakthrough season, going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA. He set modern day franchise records with his 276 strikeouts and a 14-game winning streak, and established an Atlanta mark with his 24 victories. Smoltz lost his opening start, then went 14-0 with a 1.83 ERA over his next 15 outings. Greg Maddux didn't win a fifth straight Cy Young Award, but went 15-11 with a 2.72 ERA, while Tom Glavine went 15-10 with a 2.98 ERA and won his 3rd Silver Slugger Award. Mark Wohlers shattered Gene Garber's 1982 franchise record of 30 saves by notching 39 of his own in 44 opportunities, and also recorded 100 strikeouts in 77.1 IP. Stellar years at the plate were enjoyed by Chipper Jones (30-110-.309), Fred McGriff (28-107-.295), Ryan Klesko (34-93-.282) and Marquis Grissom (23-74-.308). Grissom won his 4th consecutive Gold Glove Award and collected a career high 207 hits, becoming the first Brave to reach the 200 mark since Ralph Garr had 214 in 1974. Grissom set a franchise record with 671 AB, and compiled a 28-game hitting streak (49 x 127, .386) July 25-Aug. 24; it was the longest streak by a Brave since Rowland Office hit in 29 straight in 1976, and the third-longest in Atlanta history. On June 2 at Cincinnati he also became the first Brave to complete a straight steal of home since Ed Miller performed the feat in 1979. Other offensive highlights included Jeff Blauser's 7-RBI game at Philadelphia May 11, the first by a Brave since Orlando Cepeda in 1970, Jermaine Dye's homer in his first major league AB May 17 vs. the Reds (the first debut HR by a Brave since Chuck Tanner in 1955), and a 18-1 rout of the Cubs May 20, providing the Braves' largest margin of victory in a contest since Boston beat St. Louis, 20-3, August 25, 1936. The 1996 season also saw the debut of 19-year-old phenom Andruw Jones on Aug. 15, who made the jump from A-ball to the majors in under two months. At 19 years, 3 months and 23 days, he became the fourth-youngest player in Atlanta history, and in his second game, the next day, he socked his first M.L. homer, becoming the youngest National Leaguer to go deep since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965.

The Braves swept the Dodgers in three games in the Division Series then became the first team in history to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the NLCS, overcoming the St. Louis Cardinals. Atlanta took the final three contests by scores of 14-0, 3-1, and 15-0. By winning the first two World Series games in Yankee Stadium, the Braves appeared on their way to repeating as world champions, but saw New York capture the final four games and the title. The Braves organization was recognized by BASEBALL AMERICA as the Organization-of-the-Year for 1996, the second time since 1991.

1997-The Braves won a major league high 101 games and an unprecedented sixth straight division title, but failed to reach the World Series for the first time since 1993 when the Marlins won the NLCS, four games to two. The six consecutive first-place finishes eclipsed the old mark of five straight set by the New York Yankees (1949-53) and the Oakland A's (1971-75). In their inaugural season at Turner Field, the Braves won 12 of their first 13 home games, and retained sole possession of first place from April 14 through the remainder of the season. The Braves set a major league record for April with 19 victories, breaking the old mark of 18, set six times previously. The team clinched the N.L. East on September 22, finishing with a 9.0 game margin over Florida. Atlanta's pitching once again proved dominant, leading the majors with a 3.18 ERA and 17 shutouts. Fourth starter Denny Neagle turned in the National League's only 20-victory campaign, going 20-5 with a 2.97 ERA, while Greg Maddux (19-4, 2.20) narrowly missed the 20-win circle. John Smoltz (15-12, 3.02) led the National League with 256.0 innings pitched, and became the first pitcher in franchise history to notch at least 200 strikeouts in four seasons. Tom Glavine (14-7, 2.96 ERA) was one of four Braves starters to rank in the top 10 in the N.L. in ERA. Glavine was named the National League's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA, while becoming the first pitcher to record two career shutouts at Colorado's Coors Field. Mark Wohlers became the first Braves pitcher to notch consecutive 30+save seasons, while fanning 92 in 69.1 innings pitched. On offense, the Braves reached the .270 mark for the second straight year, a feat they hadn't accomplished since 1947-48. Most noteworthy were the 12 grand slams hit by the squad, setting a major league record, featuring 3 by Chipper Jones in a span of 13 contests, setting the NL record for 3 slams in the fewest team games. C.Jones posted another solid season (21-111-.295), with 20 stolen bases, and became the first Braves third baseman to drive in 100+ runs in consecutive seasons since Eddie Mathews in 1959-60. Ryan Klesko led the squad with 24 homers, followed by Javy Lopez (23), Fred McGriff (22), and C.Jones (21). Jeff Blauser added 17 homers, while batting .308. The offense exploded for 9 run-innings twice in 12 games (June 22 and July 3), after not having performed the feat since 1989. Grand slams by Ryan Klesko and Tim Lincecum on July 14 vs. the Phillies marked only the fifth occasion in franchise history that the Braves hit 2 slams in a contest. Quartet of Maddux-Neagle-Glavine-Smoltz excelled in August, not allowing more than 3 ER in any of their final 19 starts of the month. Neagle joined the 20-game winners circle for the first time in his career with a 4-0 combined shutout at San Diego September 7. Maddux ended the season with a sensational ratio of 19 wins to 20 walks, with 6 of those being intentional. Rafael Belliard made headlines when he belted his first homer in more than 10 years, a 2-run blast Sept. 26 at New York. In the post-season, Atlanta swept 3 games from Houston in the Division Series, giving the Braves a 9-1 mark in Division Series competition. Competing in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins in 6 games, marking the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

1998-The Braves set a franchise record with 106 victories, and extended their own records by winning a seventh straight division title and appearing in a seventh consecutive LCS, but fell short of the World Series once again as the Padres took the NLCS, four games to two. Atlanta's 106 victories were tied for the sixth most in NL history, as the team clicked on all cylinders throughout the season, evidenced by a franchise record 215 homers, a major league leading 3.25 ERA, and an NL-high and franchise-record .985 fielding percentage. The offense tied a major league record by homering in 25 straight games April 18-May 13 and set a post-1900 record with 826 runs, while the Braves became only the third franchise in major league history to produce four 30-homer players in one season (joining 1977 and 1997 Dodgers, and 1995-97 Colorado Rockies). Andres Galarraga dispelled a widely held theory that his recent home run totals with the Rockies were inflated by playing 81 games at Coors Field by belting 44 homers, an increase of six over his 1997 total. Chipper Jones set career highs with 34 homers, a .313 BA, and 123 runs scored and became the first Brave to knock in 100+ RBI for three straight seasons since Dale Murphy did it four years in a row 1982-85. Javy Lopez set career highs with 34 homers and 106 RBI, while leading all major league catchers with a .995 fielding percentage. His 34 longballs and 106 RBI set Braves franchise records for a catcher (Joe Torre hit 36 homers in 1966, but only 31 as a catcher, while nearly half of Torre's 109 RBI in 1964 came as a first baseman). Andrew Jones rebounded from a slow start (.204 through April) to become the sixth-youngest player in major league history to reach the 30-homer mark, ending the campaign with 31 homers, 90 RBI and 27 stolen bases; he also became the youngest 20-20 player in major league history, a record established by the Astros' Cesar Cedeño in 1972, and captured his first Gold Glove in center field. The pitching staff, in addition to leading the majors in ERA, also paced both leagues with 24 complete games, 23 shutouts, and 1,232 strikeouts, the second-highest total in major league history, behind only the '96 Braves staff (1,245). Tom Glavine produced the staff's sixth Cy Young Award since 1991 by going 20-6 with a career-low 2.47 ERA, while all five members of the rotation won 16 or more games; the only other team in major league history to perform the feat was the 1902 Pittsburgh Pirates. The rotation as a whole included major league leaders in wins (Glavine's 20 were tied for first), ERA (Greg Maddux at 2.22, his fourth ERA title in six seasons) and winning percentage (John Smoltz went 17-3 for an .850 winning percentage). Two individual milestones attained by Braves pitchers were Dennis Martinez becoming the winningest Latin American pitcher in major league history when he registered his 244th career victory in a 7-5 decision at San Francisco August 9, and Maddux notching his 200th career win in an 8-4 triumph over the Giants August 18. Kerry Ligtenberg took over the closer's role in the bullpen and went 30-for-34 in save opportunities, becoming the first NL rookie since Cards' Todd Worrell in 1986 to post 30 saves in a campaign. The defense led the loop in fielding for the first time since 1969, committing a league-low 91 errors. After winning the NL East by 18.0 games over of the Mets, Braves beat the Cubs in three games for their third straight Division Series sweep, before losing the NLCS in six games for the second straight year, this time to the Padres.

1999-The Braves overcame the loss of several key players and captured their fifth National League pennant of the 1990's, before falling to the Yankees in the World Series. At the outset of spring training, the Braves were stunned to hear that Andres Galarraga would be lost for the season because of Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma in a bone in his lower back, and also saw closer Kerry Ligtenberg go down with a season-ending medial collateral ligament tear in his right elbow. Despite these losses and season-ending injuries to Javy Lopez, Odalis Perez and Rudy Seanez during the summer, Braves managed to win 103 games and claim their unprecedented eighth straight division title. The team blew open a tight race with the Mets by taking 5 of 6 games from the New Yorkers in late September, highlighted by Chipper Jones' 4-HR barrage in a 3-game sweep in Atlanta, which served as his springboard to the MVP Award. C. Jones led the Braves to a franchise-record 840 runs scored, while setting a National League record for homers by a switch-hitter with 45 longballs, and also became the first player in Major League history to hit at least .300, have at least 100 runs, 100 RBI, 40 HR, 40 doubles, 100 walks, and 20 steals. Under the tutelage of Don Baylor, he clubbed 15 HR in 142 AB (every 9.5 AB) against lefthanders, after having only 12 HR in 678 lifetime AB vs. lefties (every 56.5 AB) entering the campaign. New acquisition Brian Jordan drove in a career-high 115 runs, despite being hindered by a painful right hand after being plunked June 22. Gerald Williams provided punch in the leadoff spot with 17 homers, while Andrew Jones hit 26 HR and became the third Atlanta Brave to play in all 162 games (Felix Millan, 1969; Dale Murphy, 1982-85), in addition to winning his second straight Gold Glove in center field. Lopez, batting .317 when a partial tear of his right ACL in late July sidelined him for the season, was capably replaced for the duration by Eddie Perez (career-high 104 games). Braves pitching, while not as dominant as in seasons past, nevertheless led the majors in ERA for the 6th time in the 1990's at 3.63. Atlanta's Cy Young trio of Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and John Smoltz were amazingly surpassed in performance by fourth starter Kevin Millwood, who went 18-7 with a second-ranked 2.68 ERA, leading the majors with a .202 opponents BA, and placing third in the National League's Cy Young balloting in only his second full season. Greg Maddux went 19-9, Tom Glavine added 14 wins, and John Smoltz battled elbow problems (including two stints on the D.L.) en route to 11 victories. Terry Mulholland proved to be a valuable trading deadline pickup from the Cubs, mixing in 8 relief outings with his 8 starts, and compiled a 2.98 ERA after joining the Braves. Mike Remlinger appeared in a career high 73 games and became an unsung hero, going 10-1 with a 2.37 ERA; his 10 wins were the most by an Atlanta reliever since Cecil Upshaw won 11 in 1971. John Rocker stepped up as the third Braves' closer in as many seasons and recorded 38 saves in 45 opportunities, 4th-best in the NL, and only one behind Mark Wohlers' franchise mark of 39 in 1996. His dominance was exhibited by his 104 strikeouts in only 72.1 IP, while allowing only 47 hits. In the post-season, Braves disposed of Astros in 4 games, then appeared in their record 8th straight LCS, outlasting the Mets in a pulsating 6-game series after being up 3 games to none. Braves made their 5th World Series appearance of the 1990's, and held two 8th-inning leads (in Games One and Three), but failed to preserve them and were swept in 4 straight by the Yankees.

Braves Best Pitching Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons.

Warren Spahn	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch.
Jim Wilson	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
Pete Smith	7-0 in 1992, in 11 starts.
Tom Glavine	7-0 in 1993, in 10 starts.
Denny Neagle	7-0 in 1997, in 10 starts.
George Stone	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.
Mark Wohlers	5-0 in 1994, all in relief.
Terrell Wade	5-0 in 1996, 36 relief appearances and 8 starts.

2000 Braves Radio / TV

The Atlanta Braves, TBS, FOX Sports Net and News/Talk 750 WSB will team up once again in 2000 to bring Braves fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. Joining the coverage team this season will be the newly formed Turner South Network. TBS, and its predecessor, WTCC, have been carrying Braves games since 1973. TBS reaches more than 63 million homes. FOX Sports Net, in more than 7 million homes, has broadcast select Braves regular season and spring training games on a southeastern regional basis the past nine seasons. News/Talk 750 WSB returned in 1995 as the home station of the Atlanta Braves radio network. WSB broadcast the Braves from 1966, their first year in Atlanta, through 1983 and from 1985-1991. WSB carries a 50,000-watt, clear-channel signal that reaches 38 states at night. WSB will carry all 162 regular season games and a number of spring training games. The Braves radio network includes about 200 affiliates.

2000 Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 2000 season marks Skip Caray's 25th behind the microphone for TBS and the Braves. Caray joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS) in 1972 as voice of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and was added to Braves' telecasts in 1976.

Caray and his son, Chip, made broadcast history when they joined Skip's dad, Harry, during a Braves-Cubs contest in May of 1991, becoming the first three-generation family to announce a major league game.

Caray's call of Francisco Cabrera's pennant-winning hit driving home Sid Bream in game seven of the '92 NLCS will go down as one of the most memorable in Atlanta history. Caray was also involved in the NFL as a play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990-1991) of TNT's coverage of Sunday Night football and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on TBS' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games.

Caray also called Atlanta Hawks basketball on TBS for the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons. He's a six-time winner of the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year award, has won a local Emmy for sportscasting and was nominated for a 1994 CableACE Award.

Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children: Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Josh.

Pete Van Wieren

Pete Van Wieren is in his 25th season as a voice of the Braves. He has earned the prestigious Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award nine times, the first coming in 1980.

Van Wieren received the 1998 Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" by the Braves 400 Club.

He began his Major League broadcasting career with the Braves in 1976 after working as play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football.

Pete and his wife, Elaine, live in Tucker, GA. They have two children, Steven and Jon.

Don Sutton

Don Sutton, inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame in July of 1998, has been a member of the Braves' broadcast team since 1989.

Besides his baseball duties, he also serves as a reporter on TBS' coverage of professional golf, having covered the United Hawaiian Open, PGA Grand Slam of Golf and the PGA Championship. His previous broadcast experience includes pre- and post-game analysis for NBC's coverage of the 1987 League Championship Series and a stint as a sportscaster for KNBC-TV in Los Angeles.

Sutton is a four-time National League All-Star and one of Major League Baseball's all-time winningest pitchers. A 23-year veteran of the Major Leagues, Sutton is one of only 20 pitchers in Major League history to win 300 games (324). He pitched for the Dodgers, Astros, Brewers, Athletics and Angels between 1966 and 1988.

Don and his wife, Mary, and their daughter, Jacqueline, live in Roswell, GA. Don has two other children, Daron and Staci.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson returns for his ninth season as a Braves' announcer after serving as an analyst for the Seattle Mariners telecasts from 1987-1991. He earned the prestigious Georgia Sportscaster of the Year for the first time in his career in 1996.

An All-American outfielder / first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson went on to play professionally for 11 seasons. He began his career in 1973 as a third round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers. After several brief stints with the parent club, Simpson joined the Seattle Mariners prior to the start of the 1979 season. He remained with the Mariners until the 1983 season, when he finished his Major League career with the Kansas City Royals.

Joe and his wife, Kathy, live in Marietta, GA. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

2000 FOX Sports Net Broadcasters

Bob Rathbun

Bob Rathbun will be in his fourth year in the booth for FOX Sports Net and the Braves. He also works on the Atlanta Hawks telecasts with Mike Glenn. Rathbun was honored with his first Georgia Sportscaster of the Year in 1998.

He began his career as sports director for WSTP Radio in Salisbury, N.C., in 1973. Bob has called college baseball, basketball, and football for over ten years including CBS's 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball, ESPN's 1996 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and ESPN's 1995 College World Series. Other broadcast experience includes Baltimore Orioles telecasts, ACC men's basketball and Washington Bullets basketball for Home Team Sports. Bob has also done play-by-play for the Tidewater Tides, Detroit Tigers and the Richmond Braves. Bob is a six-time Virginia Sportscaster of the Year, as voted by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Bob and his wife, Marybeth, reside in Dunwoody, GA. They have one son, Court.

Al Downing

Veteran Major League pitcher and broadcaster Al Downing joins the FOX Sports Net announcing team as the network's analyst for its 30 Atlanta Braves telecasts in 2000. From 1994-99, Downing covered Major League Baseball's "Game of the Week" for CBS Radio Sports, including extensive work as the network's analyst for its division and league championship series broadcasts. He served as the Los Angeles Dodgers' telecast analyst for The Sports Channel (1991-92), DodgerVision ('85-88) and ON TV ('78-84), and from 1983-92, he hosted the daily "Dodger Talk" program on KABC TalkRadio in Los Angeles. He is also a past recipient of the "Tom Harmon Southern California Sports Broadcaster/Television Commentator of the Year Award."

In 1961, Downing began a 16-year MLB career, which included stops with the New York Yankees (nine seasons), Oakland Athletics/Milwaukee Brewers (one season combined) and Dodgers (six and a half seasons). He retired in 1977, with a 123-107 career pitching record and a 3.23 earned run average.

In 1964, Downing posted 217 strikeouts to lead the American League, the last Yankee to do so. As a Yankee, the lefthander played in the 1967 All-Star Game; he won 20 games with the Dodgers in 1971, and in all, he pitched in three World Series. Downing is also remembered for yielding Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th career home run in Atlanta, on April 8, 1974.

Dave Neal

Dave Neal adds another role to his FOX Sports Net resume, joining the telecast crew as host of The New Dodge Braves Report – a live, half-hour program preceding each of the network's 30 Atlanta Braves games. The show originates from the ballpark (home and away games) and provides viewers with an inside look at the defending National League champions.

This winter, Neal also hosted the road game version of the network's Advance Auto Parts Hawks Tonight! show, which preceded each of FOX Sports Net's NBA Atlanta Hawks telecasts.

Neal is the network's longtime voice of the Southeastern Conference, handling the play-by-play for SEC men's basketball and baseball telecasts and serving as host of the popular weekly magazine show, SEC-TV Weekly.

He joined FOX Sports Net in 1994 as a reporter for the Braves and Hawks pregame shows. Neal has also covered numerous special events for the network, including the NFL Super Bowl Channel, Inside the SEC Championships, and the XIIth Pan American Games from Mar Del Plata, Argentina. He has also called play-by-play for FSN's Major League Baseball and NBA telecasts.

Prior to joining FOX Sports Net, the Florida State graduate was a sports anchor for WTXL-TV in Tallahassee, Fla.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceeding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

MLB Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for Major League service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The final game took place on October 24, 1996 when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in the fifth game of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' down the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' with a capacity of 52,769.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is being converted into a parking lot in time for the 1998 season.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75-85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the club level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper, level does not go all around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – A 29-foot-by-38-foot Panasonic video screen and a 32-foot-by-64-foot Daktronics scoreboard. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the total seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.
